I. Introduction to Our Company

At Meadowlark Home Care, we are committed to integrity, respect, and ethical conduct. Each employee is responsible for knowing and upholding our policies and standards to ensure we maintain the highest standards. Our dedication requires active participation from all staff, including administrative personnel, members, and care providers. The attached Code of Business Conduct reflects our ethical views that we ask our employees to understand and follow.

II. Maintaining Boundaries with Members

Maintaining professionalism while providing compassionate care is essential. Do not share personal phone numbers with members or engage in financial transactions, including gifts. Ensure services provided are authorized and within guidelines. If boundary issues arise, discuss them with management.

III. Confidentiality

Respecting member privacy and confidentiality is crucial. Follow HIPAA regulations and refer to the guidelines provided. Communicate about members only with Meadowlark Home Care management.

IV. Avoiding Discrimination and Harassment

Everyone has the right to be free from discrimination and harassment. Maintain professionalism and respect at all times. If you experience or witness discrimination or harassment, contact management immediately.

V. Work Hours and Schedules

Schedules are based on availability and member preferences, subject to change. Communicate any changes in your availability promptly. If you need time off, facilitate shift trades or notify management in advance.

VI. Time Off/Leave of Absence

Submit time off requests at least 30 days in advance. Paid time off accrues at specified rates and must be used to continue earning more after an 80-hour cap is reached. For leaves of absence, we will accommodate as best as possible, and abide by FMLA, if applicable.

VII. Attendance Policy

Reliability and consistency are essential. Good attendance is incentivized through bonuses and wage increase considerations. Excessive call-offs may lead to disciplinary action, up to and including termination. Provide documentation for extended absences.

VIII. Dress Code and Appropriate Conduct

Wear closed-toe shoes and comfortable, loose-fitting clothing. Present yourself professionally. Conduct yourself with respect and dignity towards others.

IX. Disciplinary Action

Self-report any infractions to management. Serious or habitual infractions may lead to formal corrective actions, including termination. Disciplinary actions will be discussed formally, allowing for employee input.

X. Email/Scheduling/Payroll Information

Use Qliq for messaging and Axiscare for scheduling. Ensure timely submission of paperwork and time sheets to avoid payroll delays.

Messaging
